

ChatGPT Prompts for Paralegals & Legal Assistants

25 Copy-Paste Templates | Client Communication · Legal Documents · Case Management · Career

State Variable Notice (applies to all legal document prompts): Law varies significantly by state and jurisdiction. All prompts involving legal documents, deadlines, statutes, or court procedures include a required "Applicable State" input field. Always verify state-specific rules with the supervising attorney before finalizing any document.

CATEGORY 1 — Client Communication (6 Prompts)

Prompt 1 — New Client Intake Summary Email

You are a paralegal at a law firm. Write a professional intake summary email to send to a new client after their initial consultation.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / family law / estate planning / employment dispute / landlord-tenant]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Date of consultation: [Date]
- Summary of matter discussed: [Brief 2-3 sentence description of the client's situation]
- Documents client needs to send: [List specific documents, e.g., "police report, insurance correspondence, medical records, photos of injury"]
- Document submission deadline: [Date or "as soon as possible"]
- Retainer or fee agreement status: [e.g., "fee agreement sent separately / retainer due before work begins: $X / contingency – no upfront fee"]
- Next step from the firm's side: [e.g., "attorney will review and contact you within 5 business days" / "we will send the demand letter once records are received"]
- Document submission method: [e.g., "email to [email address]" / "upload via our client portal at [link]" / "drop off at office"]

Write an intake summary email that:

1. Confirms the consultation and thanks the client for choosing the firm
2. Summarizes the matter clearly in plain, non-legal language
3. Lists the required documents in a numbered or bulleted format
4. States the submission deadline and method
5. Explains the next step the firm will take
6. Closes with your contact info for questions

Subject line + full email. Professional but approachable – many clients are anxious about legal matters.

Prompt 2 — Case Status Update Letter

You are a paralegal. Write a case status update letter or email to a client who has been waiting for progress.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / civil litigation / immigration / probate]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Current status of the case: [Brief factual update, e.g., "we have received the defendant's response and are reviewing / we are awaiting the court's scheduling order / discovery is ongoing"]
- What has been done since last update: [e.g., "demand letter sent on [date] / filed complaint on [date] / received medical records and forwarded to attorney"]
- What is happening next: [e.g., "attorney will respond to defendant's offer within 2 weeks / deposition scheduled for [date]"]
- Estimated timeline (if possible): [e.g., "we anticipate resolution within 3-6 months" or "timeline is difficult to predict at this stage"]
- Anything needed from the client: [List or "nothing at this time"]

Write a case update that:

1. Opens by acknowledging the client's patience
2. Gives a clear, factual summary of where things stand (no legal jargon)
3. States what the next steps are and an approximate timeline
4. Lists anything needed from the client
5. Reassures them and invites questions

Subject line + full letter/email. Plain language – avoid legalese where possible.

Prompt 3 — Deadline Urgent Reminder Email

You are a paralegal. Write an urgent deadline reminder email to a client who must take action or provide documents before a critical legal deadline.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Deadline date: [Date]
- What is due or must happen by this date: [e.g., "signed settlement agreement must be returned" / "documents required for filing must be received" / "client must confirm approval to proceed"]
- Consequence if deadline is missed: [e.g., "we will be unable to file the complaint" / "the offer may expire" / "a court deadline will be missed, which could harm the case"]
- How to respond or send documents: [e.g., "reply to this email / fax to [number] / upload to client portal"]
- Your direct contact: [Phone and email]

Write an urgent reminder email that:

1. States the deadline and what is needed in the first sentence – no burying the lead
2. Clearly explains what happens if the deadline is missed
3. Makes the action as easy as possible (clear instructions, your direct contact)
4. Maintains a professional, urgent (but not alarming) tone
5. Requests confirmation of receipt

Subject line + full email. Short and action-focused – they need to read and act on this immediately.

Prompt 4 — Invoice / Billing Explanation Email

You are a paralegal. Write a professional email explaining a legal invoice to a client who has questions or concerns about their billing statement.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Invoice amount in question: $[Amount]
- Invoice period: [e.g., "April 1-30, 2025"]
- Items the client questioned or that need explaining: [List specific line items, e.g., "3.5 hours attorney review / $85 filing fee / 1.0 hour paralegal research"]
- Explanation for each item: [Brief plain-language explanation for each]
- Any adjustment being made (if any): [e.g., "we are crediting $X for the duplicate entry" or "none - all charges are correct as billed"]
- Payment due date: [Date]
- Payment methods: [e.g., "check / credit card via client portal / bank transfer"]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal or Billing Contact]

Write a billing explanation email that:

1. Thanks the client for bringing this to your attention
2. Explains each questioned item in plain terms (what was done and why it took that amount of time)
3. States clearly whether any adjustment is being made
4. Restates the amount due and payment deadline
5. Closes with a note that you're happy to discuss further

Subject line + full email. Professional, patient, and transparent.

Prompt 5 — Settlement Explanation Letter

You are a paralegal. Write a letter explaining a settlement offer or agreement to a client in plain language.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / employment dispute / contract dispute]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Settlement offer amount: $[Amount]
- What the settlement covers: [e.g., "all claims related to the [date] accident, including medical expenses, lost wages, and pain and suffering"]
- Deductions from settlement (if any): [e.g., "attorney fees: $X / medical lien: $X / costs: $X" – or "none at this stage"]
- Client's estimated net amount: $[Amount] – or "to be calculated after lien resolution"
- What the client must do to accept: [e.g., "sign and return the enclosed release agreement by [date]"]
- What signing the release means: [e.g., "signing releases all claims against [defendant] arising from this incident – you cannot bring future claims"]
- Deadline to respond: [Date]
- Attorney's recommendation (if authorized to share): [e.g., "the attorney recommends acceptance given [brief reason]" or "attorney will discuss in your scheduled call on [date]"]

Write a settlement explanation letter that:

1. States the offer amount clearly in the opening
2. Explains what the settlement covers in plain language
3. Shows any deductions and the net amount the client receives
4. Explains clearly what they are giving up by signing the release
5. States the deadline and what they need to do next
6. Encourages them to contact the attorney with questions before signing

Full letter format (not email). Plain language – no legalese. This is a major decision and the client needs to fully understand it.

Prompt 6 — Case Closure Notification Letter

You are a paralegal. Write a case closure letter to send to a client when their matter has been resolved.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury settlement / estate administration complete / immigration approval received]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Outcome summary: [e.g., "your case settled for $X, net proceeds of $X disbursed on [date]" / "estate administration is complete, assets distributed per the will" / "your green card application was approved"]
- Documents being sent with this letter (if any): [e.g., "copy of the signed settlement release / final accounting / approval notice"]
- File retention policy: [e.g., "we will retain your file for 7 years before destruction / your original documents are enclosed"]
- Any ongoing obligations the client should be aware of: [e.g., "if you receive any future correspondence related to this matter, contact us immediately" or "none"]
- Invitation to return: [e.g., "we would be honored to assist you with any future legal needs"]

Write a case closure letter that:

1. Opens with the resolution and outcome clearly stated
2. Summarizes the outcome in plain language
3. Lists any enclosed documents
4. Notes the file retention policy and any ongoing client obligations
5. Closes warmly and professionally, expressing appreciation for their trust

Full letter format. Professional, warm, final. This is the last impression the client has of the firm.

CATEGORY 2 — Legal Document Drafting (8 Prompts)

Prompt 7 — Demand Letter Draft

You are a paralegal drafting a demand letter under attorney supervision.

⚠ State law governs demand letter requirements, deadlines, and acceptable language. Always have the supervising attorney review before sending.

Details:

- Applicable State: [e.g., California]
- Sender (Claimant): [Client Name / Firm Name on behalf of client]
- Recipient (Defendant / Opposing Party): [Name and address]
- Supervising Attorney: [Name, Bar Number]
- Date: [Date]
- Matter type: [e.g., personal injury / property damage / breach of contract / unpaid wages / landlord-tenant dispute]
- Summary of facts: [Brief narrative of what happened – who did what, when, and what damages resulted]
- Legal basis for claim: [e.g., negligence / breach of contract / statutory violation – cite the general legal theory, attorney will confirm citations]
- Damages claimed:
 - Medical expenses: $[Amount] (or "ongoing / to be determined")
 - Lost wages: $[Amount] (or "N/A")
 - Property damage: $[Amount]
 - Pain and suffering: $[Amount] (or "to be determined")
 - Other: [Describe and amount]
 - Total demand: $[Total Amount]
- Settlement demand and deadline: [e.g., "we demand $X in full settlement within 30 days of the date of this letter"]
- Consequence if not resolved: [e.g., "we will proceed with filing a civil lawsuit without further notice"]
- Enclosures (if any): [e.g., "medical records summary / repair estimate / incident report"]

Draft a formal demand letter that:

1. Opens with the purpose and identifies all parties
2. States the facts clearly and chronologically
3. States the legal basis for the claim (general theory – attorney will verify state-specific citations)
4. Itemizes damages with total demand
5. States the deadline and consequence of non-response
6. Lists enclosures
7. Closes with attorney signature block

Professional, firm, factual. Demand letters set the tone for potential litigation – write with precision.

Note at bottom of draft: "DRAFT – FOR ATTORNEY REVIEW BEFORE SENDING. Verify [Applicable State] demand letter requirements and applicable statutes."

Prompt 8 — Case Summary Memo (Internal)

You are a paralegal. Write an internal case summary memo for the supervising attorney.

⚠️ Applicable State: [e.g., Texas]

State-specific procedural rules, filing deadlines, and statutes of limitations vary.

Attorney should verify all state-specific information.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – use fictional names]
- Case Number (if filed): [Fictional or "not yet filed"]
- Firm File Number: [Fictional]
- Date of Memo: [Date]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- For: [Attorney Name]
- Applicable State: [State]
- Jurisdiction: [State court / Federal court / Arbitration]
- Case type: [e.g., personal injury / breach of contract / employment]
- Date of incident or contract breach: [Date]
- Statute of limitations deadline: [Calculate based on Applicable State rules – note: "verify with attorney"]

FACTS SUMMARY:

[Provide the key facts in chronological order – who, what, when, where, how – fictional scenario or use case details]

PARTIES:

- Plaintiff: [Name, relationship to matter]
- Defendant(s): [Name(s), role]
- Key witnesses: [Names and relevance]
- Third parties: [Insurance carriers, employers, etc.]

CLAIMS AND LEGAL THEORIES:

[List the claims being pursued and the general legal theories – attorney will confirm statutory citations under [Applicable State] law]

DAMAGES:

[Summarize known damages with amounts where available]

EVIDENCE GATHERED TO DATE:

[List what has been collected: records, photos, reports, witness statements]

OUTSTANDING ITEMS:

[What still needs to be obtained or done]

RECOMMENDED NEXT STEPS:

[Paralegal's suggested action items for attorney review]

Format as a professional internal memo. Organized, factual, scannable.

Note at end: "DRAFT – For attorney review. All [Applicable State] statutory deadlines and citations to be verified by supervising attorney."

Prompt 9 — Discovery Request Draft

You are a paralegal drafting discovery requests under attorney supervision.

⚠️ Applicable State: [e.g., Florida]

Discovery rules, interrogatory limits, and response timeframes are governed by [Applicable State] Rules of Civil Procedure. Attorney must review all discovery requests before filing.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Case Number: [Fictional]
- Court: [e.g., "[Applicable State] Superior Court / District Court"]
- Applicable State: [State]
- Propounding Party: [Plaintiff / Defendant]
- Responding Party: [Opposing party name]
- Discovery type to draft: [Interrogatories / Requests for Production / Requests for Admission / all three]
- Case type: [e.g., personal injury / breach of contract / employment discrimination]
- Key facts in dispute: [What the discovery is designed to uncover – fictional scenario]
- Specific information sought: [List key topics, e.g., "defendant's prior knowledge of the defect / insurance policy limits / all communications regarding the incident / financial records"]

For each discovery type selected, draft:

INTERROGATORIES (if selected):

- Draft 10-15 interrogatories appropriate to the case type
- Note the interrogatory limit under [Applicable State] rules: [Attorney to confirm – often 25-30 without leave of court]
- Include standard definition and instruction sections

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION (if selected):

- Draft 10-15 document requests appropriate to the case type
- Include standard definition sections
- Specify format for electronic document production if applicable

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION (if selected):

- Draft 5-10 targeted requests for admission
- Focus on undisputed background facts and authenticity of documents

End each section with:

"DRAFT – For attorney review. Verify compliance with [Applicable State] Rules of Civil Procedure, including interrogatory limits and service deadlines, before filing."

Prompt 10 — Opposing Party Communication Draft

You are a paralegal drafting a letter to opposing counsel or an opposing party under attorney supervision.

Details:

- Applicable State: [e.g., Georgia] (governs professional conduct rules for attorney correspondence)
- From: [Firm Name / Attorney Name on letterhead]
- To: [Opposing counsel name and firm / Pro se opposing party]
- Date: [Date]
- Case/Matter: [Brief description – fictional]
- Purpose of this letter: [e.g., "respond to opposing counsel's letter dated [date]" / "request extension of discovery deadline" / "follow up on settlement proposal" / "object to proposed deposition date"]
- Key points to communicate: [List 2-4 specific points, e.g., "we are unable to agree to the proposed schedule / we request a 30-day extension / we object to document request #12 as overbroad"]
- Tone: [Cooperative and professional / Firm and assertive / Neutral and factual]
- Any enclosures: [List or "none"]

Draft a letter to opposing counsel that:

1. States the purpose clearly in the opening paragraph
2. Addresses each point factually and precisely
3. Avoids inflammatory or unprofessional language (compliant with [Applicable State] Rules of Professional Conduct)
4. States any requested action or deadline
5. Closes professionally

Note at end: "DRAFT – For attorney review and signature. Attorney to verify content complies with [Applicable State] Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 4.2 (communication with represented parties) and all applicable court rules."

Prompt 11 — Witness Interview Summary

You are a paralegal. Write a witness interview summary memorandum after speaking with a fact witness.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Interview Date: [Date]
- Witness Name: [Fictional name]
- Witness Role: [e.g., "eyewitness to accident / former coworker / treating physician / neighbor"]
- Interview conducted by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Interview method: [In-person / Phone / Video call]
- Attorney being informed: [Attorney Name]

Summary of information provided:

[Summarize what the witness said in the following areas – use fictional scenario:]

- What the witness personally observed: [Describe]
- What the witness heard: [Describe]
- Relevant background knowledge: [What they knew before the incident]
- Witness's demeanor and credibility assessment: [Cooperative / Hesitant / Inconsistent / Appeared credible]
- Any inconsistencies or notable statements: [Flag any statements that contradict other evidence]
- Contact information confirmed: [Fictional phone/email]
- Willingness to testify: [Willing / Reluctant / Unknown]

Write a witness interview memo that:

1. Opens with the witness's identity, interview details, and role in the case
2. Summarizes the substance of the interview in organized paragraphs
3. Flags any inconsistencies or notable statements clearly
4. Notes credibility assessment
5. States the witness's willingness to testify
6. Ends with recommended follow-up actions

Format: Internal memo. Factual, organized, no legal conclusions – that is for the attorney.

Prompt 12 — Expert Witness Briefing Document

You are a paralegal preparing a briefing document for an expert witness.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Expert Name & Credentials: [Fictional name + specialty, e.g., "Dr. Jane Smith, MD, FACS – General Surgery"]
- Expert's role: [Testifying expert / Consulting expert]
- Supervising Attorney: [Fictional name]
- Your Name: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Case type: [e.g., medical malpractice / product liability / accident reconstruction]
- Core question the expert will address: [e.g., "whether the defendant's surgical technique fell below the standard of care"]

Briefing sections to include:

- Case background: [2–3 paragraph summary of the key facts relevant to the expert's opinion – fictional scenario]
- Documents provided for review: [List the records, reports, and materials being sent to the expert – fictional list]
- Specific questions the attorney wants the expert to address: [List 3–5 specific questions]
- Key facts favorable to our position: [Brief summary]
- Key facts or arguments raised by opposing side: [Brief summary – expert should be aware]
- Scheduling: [Deposition date if scheduled / deadline for expert report]
- Confidentiality reminder: [Include standard reminder that all materials are protected by attorney work product and attorney-client privilege]

Draft a professional expert witness briefing document that is organized, complete, and easy for the expert to follow without prior knowledge of the case.

Prompt 13 — Contract Review Summary Memo

You are a paralegal. Write a contract review summary memorandum for the supervising attorney after reviewing a contract.

⚠ Applicable State: [e.g., New York]

Contract enforceability, specific clauses, and default rules vary by state.

This is a paralegal summary – legal conclusions must be confirmed by the supervising attorney.

Details:

- Contract type: [e.g., service agreement / commercial lease / employment agreement / vendor contract / settlement agreement]
- Parties to the contract: [Party A name / Party B name – fictional]
- Date of contract: [Date]
- Applicable State: [State – governs law on enforceability, limitations, and interpretation]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- For: [Attorney Name]
- Client's side: [Which party the firm represents]

Review the following and summarize:

[Paste contract language here – or describe the contract for drafting purposes]

Summary memo to include:

1. CONTRACT OVERVIEW: Parties, purpose, term, governing law clause
2. KEY OBLIGATIONS: What each party must do
3. PAYMENT TERMS: Amounts, schedule, late fees, dispute process
4. TERMINATION CLAUSES: How and when either party can exit
5. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION: Who bears risk for what
6. NON-COMPETE / NON-SOLICITATION (if present): Scope, duration, geography – flag if enforceable under [Applicable State] law (note: attorney to confirm)
7. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Arbitration / mediation / litigation? Which state/court?
8. MISSING OR UNUSUAL PROVISIONS: Anything absent that is typically present, or unusual language
9. RECOMMENDED QUESTIONS FOR CLIENT OR ATTORNEY: Items requiring clarification or decision

Format: Organized memo with section headers. Flag high-risk provisions in bold. Paralegal summary only – not legal advice.

Note at end: "DRAFT – For attorney review. All conclusions regarding enforceability and risk under [Applicable State] law to be confirmed by supervising attorney."

Prompt 14 — Legal Research Summary Notes

You are a paralegal. Write a legal research summary memo documenting your research findings for the supervising attorney.

⚠️ Applicable State: [e.g., Illinois]

All legal research findings are jurisdiction-specific. Citations and holdings must be verified by the supervising attorney before reliance.

Details:

- Research question: [State the specific legal question being researched, e.g., "What is the statute of limitations for personal injury claims in [Applicable State]?" / "What are the elements of promissory estoppel under [Applicable State] law?"]
- Applicable State: [State]
- Jurisdiction: [State court / Federal / Both]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- For: [Attorney Name]
- Date: [Date]
- Research tools used: [e.g., Westlaw / LexisNexis / Casetext / free legal databases]
- Case or matter context: [Brief description of why this research is needed – fictional]

Research memo to include:

1. ISSUE: State the legal question precisely
2. BRIEF ANSWER: One sentence answer to the question (paralegal's preliminary finding)
3. APPLICABLE STATUTES: Cite relevant state statutes with section numbers (note: verify current version with attorney)
4. KEY CASES: Summarize 2-4 most relevant cases:
 - Case name, court, year
 - Holding relevant to the issue
 - How it applies to the current matter
5. ANALYSIS: How do the statutes and cases apply to the facts of the current matter?
6. CONFLICTING AUTHORITY (if any): Note any contrary cases or split in authority
7. OPEN QUESTIONS: What remains unclear or requires further research?
8. RECOMMENDED NEXT STEPS: What attorney should review or confirm

Format: Formal legal research memo. Objective, factual, organized.

Note at end: "PARALEGAL RESEARCH SUMMARY – Not legal advice. All citations and holdings to be verified by [Attorney Name] before reliance. Research reflects [Applicable State] law as of [Date]."

CATEGORY 3 — Case Management & Scheduling (6 Prompts)

Prompt 15 — Case Timeline Summary

You are a paralegal. Create a chronological case timeline summary for internal case management use.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / breach of contract / family law]
- Firm File Number: [Fictional]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Date prepared: [Date]

Events to include in the timeline:

[List all known events with dates – fictional scenario. Include:]

- Date of incident / contract breach / triggering event
- Date client first contacted firm
- Retainer signed date
- Key correspondence dates (demand letter sent, response received, etc.)
- Filing dates (complaint, answer, motions)
- Discovery deadlines and completions
- Deposition dates
- Mediation / arbitration dates
- Settlement offer dates and amounts
- Trial date (if set)
- Any other significant dates relevant to this case

Format the timeline as:

1. A chronological table with columns: Date | Event | Key Documents | Notes
2. A brief narrative paragraph summarizing the arc of the case from beginning to present
3. A "coming up" section listing the next 3 upcoming deadlines

Keep the table clean and scannable – this will be referenced frequently during the case.

Prompt 16 — Statute of Limitations Warning Memo

You are a paralegal. Write an internal statute of limitations warning memo to alert the supervising attorney to an approaching filing deadline.

⚠️ Applicable State: [e.g., Arizona]

Statutes of limitations vary by claim type, state, and circumstances.

This memo is a paralegal flag – attorney MUST verify the applicable deadline before relying on it. Missing an SOL deadline can result in malpractice liability.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Applicable State: [State]
- Client Name: [Fictional]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Date of memo: [Date]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]

Claim information:

- Claim type: [e.g., personal injury / breach of contract / medical malpractice / wrongful termination / product liability]
- Date of incident / accrual date: [Date]
- Applicable statute of limitations period (paralegal research finding): [e.g., "2 years for personal injury under [Applicable State] Code § [section]" – attorney to verify]
- Calculated deadline: [Date – note this is paralegal calculation, attorney to confirm]
- Days remaining as of memo date: [Number]
- Urgency level: [Critical (under 30 days) / Urgent (30–90 days) / Monitor (90+ days)]

Special tolling factors to investigate (paralegal flags – attorney to assess):

- Was the plaintiff a minor at the time of the incident? [Yes / No / Unknown]
- Was the defendant a government entity? [Yes / No – note: shorter notice deadlines may apply]
- Discovery rule applicability: [Did the plaintiff know or should have known of the claim on the accrual date?]
- Any other potential tolling factors: [e.g., defendant was out of state / fraudulent concealment]

Write a warning memo that:

1. States the deadline and days remaining prominently at the top
2. Identifies the claim type and applicable SOL period with statutory reference
3. Flags all potential tolling factors for attorney analysis
4. Recommends immediate action (e.g., "recommend filing complaint by [date] to allow buffer" or "recommend attorney confirm SOL calculation by [date]")

Format: Urgent internal memo. This is a risk management document – be direct and specific.

⚠️ Note at top: "ATTORNEY REVIEW REQUIRED – Statute of Limitations deadline approaching. All calculations and tolling analyses to be confirmed by supervising attorney. Do not rely on this memo alone."

Prompt 17 — Court Date Reminder Email

You are a paralegal. Write a court date reminder email to send to a client ahead of an upcoming court appearance.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Court date and time: [Date and Time]
- Court name and address: [Fictional court name and address]
- Courtroom or department number: [e.g., "Courtroom 12, Department B" or "check in at clerk's window"]
- Type of proceeding: [e.g., hearing / deposition / mediation / trial / status conference]
- What to wear: [e.g., "business professional attire – no jeans, t-shirts, or shorts"]
- What to bring: [e.g., "valid photo ID / any documents attorney specifically requested / nothing – attorney will handle all documents"]
- What NOT to bring: [e.g., "no cell phones on in the courtroom / no children unless absolutely necessary / no weapons (court security screening)"]
- Where to meet the attorney: [e.g., "meet at the courthouse steps at [time] – arrive 20 minutes early" / "meet in the lobby at [time]"]
- Parking or transportation notes (if any): [e.g., "parking available at [location] / paid street parking only / take transit – address is near [station]"]
- What will happen at this proceeding: [Brief plain-language explanation, e.g., "the judge will hear arguments from both sides and may make a ruling" / "this is a status conference – it will be brief, about 10 minutes"]
- What to do if an emergency arises: [e.g., "call [phone] immediately if you cannot attend or are running late"]

Write a client reminder email that:

1. States the date, time, and location prominently
2. Explains what to wear and bring
3. Tells them where and when to meet the attorney
4. Explains what will happen in plain language (no legalese)
5. Provides emergency contact information

Subject line + full email. Clear, organized, reassuring – court appearances are stressful for clients.

Prompt 18 — Evidence Log Summary

You are a paralegal. Create an organized evidence log and summary for a case file.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / contract dispute]
- Firm File Number: [Fictional]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Date: [Date]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]

Evidence inventory (provide for each item):

[List each piece of evidence with the following details:]

- Item #: [Sequential number]
- Description: [What it is, e.g., "Police report #XXXX" / "Photograph of intersection – 3 photos" / "Medical records from [fictional hospital]" / "Email from defendant dated [date]"]
- Source: [Where it came from – fictional]
- Date obtained: [Date]
- Relevance to case: [1 sentence – what this evidence proves or supports]
- Location in file: [e.g., "Bates stamp BEG-001-BEG-045" / "Digital – folder: Evidence/Medical" / "Original – physical file binder"]
- Status: [Complete / Needs follow-up (describe)]

After the inventory table, provide:

1. A GAPS AND OUTSTANDING EVIDENCE section – what evidence has been requested but not yet received
2. A STRONG EVIDENCE summary – the 3-5 most compelling items and why
3. A CHAIN OF CUSTODY note for any physical evidence (if applicable)

Format: Professional evidence log table followed by summary sections. This document will be used throughout litigation – keep it precise and updatable.

Prompt 19 — Client Confidentiality Reminder

You are a paralegal. Write a client confidentiality reminder letter or email to send to a client who may be sharing case information inappropriately.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / divorce / employment dispute]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Specific concern triggering this reminder (do NOT include in the letter – for your context only): [e.g., "client posted about the case on social media" / "client mentioned discussing the case with coworkers" / "client shared documents with family members without attorney approval"]
- Topics to address: [Select applicable: social media / discussing with third parties / sharing documents / communicating with opposing party directly]

Write a confidentiality reminder that:

1. Opens warmly – this is educational, not punitive
2. Explains the importance of confidentiality in the context of their case (not a lecture – a practical explanation)
3. Specifically addresses the risks of social media posts about the case (opposing counsel monitors social media)
4. Advises against discussing case details with anyone except the attorney and paralegal
5. Cautions against direct communication with the opposing party or their attorney
6. Notes that all document sharing should go through the firm
7. Reassures them that maintaining confidentiality protects the strength of their case

Subject line + full letter/email. Tone: Professional, caring, not alarmist. They need to understand why this matters, not feel scolded.

Prompt 20 — Conflict of Interest Check Memo

You are a paralegal. Write an internal conflict of interest check memo to document a conflict screening for a potential new client.

Details:

- Date of screening: [Date]
- Potential new client name: [Fictional]
- Matter type: [e.g., personal injury / estate planning / business dispute]
- Adverse party or parties identified: [Fictional names of opposing parties]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- For: [Attorney Name / Firm conflicts committee]

Screening steps completed:

- Firm's client/matter database searched: [Yes / No]
- Attorney personal conflict checked: [Yes / No]
- Related parties searched (e.g., corporate affiliates, co-defendants): [Yes / No]
- Former client conflicts checked: [Yes / No]

Results:

- Potential conflict found: [Yes – describe / No]
- Nature of conflict (if yes): [e.g., "Firm currently represents [name] who is a co-defendant in a related matter" / "Adverse party [name] is a current client in an unrelated matter"]
- Conclusion: [No conflict – may proceed / Potential conflict – attorney review required / Conflict confirmed – must decline or obtain informed consent]

Write a conflict of interest check memo that:

1. Documents the date and scope of the screening
2. Lists the adverse parties identified
3. States what was searched and the results
4. States the preliminary conclusion clearly
5. Notes if attorney review or client consent is required before proceeding

Format: Internal memo. Factual, complete, organized – this is a compliance document. Note: Attorney must make the final conflict determination.

CATEGORY 4 — Paralegal Career & Admin (5 Prompts)

Prompt 21 — Paralegal Resume & LinkedIn Profile Editor

You are a professional resume writer specializing in legal careers. Edit and improve a paralegal's resume and LinkedIn profile for a job search.

Current information:

- Name: [Fictional name or "Paralegal A"]
- Current role and setting: [e.g., "Paralegal at a 3-attorney personal injury firm, 4 years"]
- Practice areas: [e.g., "personal injury, workers' comp, some family law"]
- Certifications: [e.g., "ACP (Advanced Certified Paralegal) / CP (Certified Paralegal) / none currently"]
- Key skills: [e.g., "Clio, iManage, LexisNexis, deposition scheduling, client intake, discovery management"]
- Target role: [e.g., "large firm litigation paralegal / in-house legal department / corporate paralegal / family law paralegal"]
- Key achievements to highlight: [e.g., "managed a docket of 150+ cases / reduced file processing time by implementing new intake workflow / drafted 200+ demand letters independently"]
- One weakness in current resume: [e.g., "reads like a job description, not achievements" / "no summary statement" / "outdated format"]

Provide:

1. A revised professional summary (3-4 sentences, for top of resume and LinkedIn "About" section)
2. Two bullet point rewrites: take a generic duty and rewrite it as an achievement with measurable impact
3. A LinkedIn headline optimized for the target role (under 120 characters)
4. Three quick tips specific to paralegal resumes this person should apply

Tone: Professional, precise — legal employers expect polished writing in a paralegal's application materials.

Prompt 22 — Job Application Cover Letter

You are a professional career writer specializing in legal careers. Write a cover letter for a paralegal applying to a specific position.

Details:

- Applicant name: [Fictional or "Paralegal A"]
- Current experience: [e.g., "3 years as a paralegal at a personal injury firm"]
- Target role: [e.g., "Litigation Paralegal / Corporate Paralegal / In-house Legal Coordinator"]
- Target employer: [e.g., "a BigLaw litigation department / a tech company's in-house legal team / a family law boutique"]
- Why this role/employer specifically: [What genuinely appeals, e.g., "their focus on commercial real estate aligns with my contract review experience" / "the in-house role offers variety across practice areas"]
- Top 2-3 relevant qualifications: [Specific, e.g., "experience with complex litigation dockets / proficiency in Clio and iManage / drafted 150+ demand letters independently"]
- One honest gap to address (optional): [e.g., "changing practice areas from PI to corporate" / "no BigLaw experience" or "none"]
- Tone: [Professional and precise / Confident and direct]

Write a cover letter (300-400 words) that:

1. Opens with a specific hook – not "I am writing to apply for the position of..."
2. Directly connects experience to what this role requires
3. Highlights 1-2 specific, measurable achievements
4. Addresses any gap briefly and honestly
5. Closes with a confident call to action

Legal employers hire for precision and attention to detail – the cover letter itself is a writing sample. Make it count.

Prompt 23 — New Legal Staff Onboarding Checklist

You are a paralegal or office manager at a law firm. Create an onboarding checklist for a new paralegal or legal assistant joining the team.

Details:

- Firm Name: [Fictional firm name]
- New staff member role: [Paralegal / Legal Assistant / Receptionist / Law Clerk]
- Start date: [Date]
- Practice area(s): [e.g., personal injury / family law / estate planning / corporate]
- Supervising attorney: [Fictional name]
- Onboarding contact (buddy/mentor): [Fictional name]
- Systems used at the firm: [e.g., Clio / iManage / NetDocuments / LexisNexis / Westlaw / Microsoft 365 / Slack]
- Remote / in-office / hybrid: [Select]

Create a structured onboarding checklist covering:

BEFORE FIRST DAY:

- ☐ Items to complete before start date (background check, forms, IT account requests)

DAY 1:

- ☐ Office tour / workspace setup
- ☐ System logins and access provisioning
- ☐ Firm policies review (confidentiality, conflicts, billing)
- ☐ Meet the team schedule

WEEK 1:

- ☐ Practice area orientation
- ☐ Case management system training
- ☐ Billing/time tracking training
- ☐ Review of current active matters (with supervising attorney)
- ☐ Shadow experienced paralegal on key tasks

WEEKS 2-4:

- ☐ Begin handling tasks independently with check-ins
- ☐ Court filing and deadline management procedures
- ☐ Client communication protocols
- ☐ First 30-day check-in with supervisor

Format as a printable checklist with checkboxes. Add a "Notes" field after each section for supervisor observations.

Prompt 24 — Internal Case Briefing Template

You are a paralegal. Write an internal case briefing document to bring a new team member or substituting attorney up to speed on an active case.

Details:

- Case Name: [Plaintiff v. Defendant – fictional]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / breach of contract / divorce]
- Applicable State: [State – governs procedural rules and deadlines]
- Assigned attorney: [Fictional name]
- Prepared by: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Date: [Date]
- Audience: [New paralegal joining the case / Substitute attorney covering while assigned attorney is out / Incoming co-counsel]

Briefing sections:

1. CASE OVERVIEW (1 paragraph): What happened, who is suing whom, and what they are seeking

2. PARTIES AND KEY CONTACTS:

- Client: [Fictional name, contact info]
- Defendant(s): [Fictional]
- Opposing counsel: [Fictional firm + attorney]
- Insurance adjuster (if applicable): [Fictional]
- Key witnesses: [Fictional names + brief description of relevance]

3. CURRENT CASE STATUS: Where things stand today

4. KEY DEADLINES (upcoming – list next 3):

- [Deadline 1]: [Date] – [Action required]
- [Deadline 2]: [Date] – [Action required]
- [Deadline 3]: [Date] – [Action required]

5. COMPLETED ACTIONS: What has been done (discovery, filings, depositions)

6. OUTSTANDING ITEMS: What is pending or still needed

7. DO NOT DO (critical cautions):

- [e.g., "Do not contact the defendant directly – represented party" / "Do not file in federal court – state court only" / "Client is sensitive about topic X – discuss with attorney before raising"]

8. FILE LOCATION: Where all case documents are stored

Format: Clean, scannable briefing document. Someone should be able to read this and be functional on the case in under 20 minutes.

Prompt 25 — CLA/CP Exam Study Plan

You are a career coach specializing in paralegal professional development. Create a structured study plan for a paralegal preparing for the CLA (Certified Legal Assistant) or CP (Certified Paralegal) exam administered by NALA.

Details:

- Exam target: [CLA / CP – note: CLA and CP are now the same NALA designation]
- Exam date (or target month): [Date or "3 months from now / 6 months from now"]
- Current experience level: [Entry-level (0-2 yrs) / Mid-level (3-5 yrs) / Experienced (5+ yrs)]
- Practice area background: [e.g., "litigation / real estate / family law / general practice"]
- Study time available per week: [e.g., "5 hours / 10 hours / weekends only"]
- Known weak areas (if any): [e.g., "ethics / contracts / civil procedure" or "unknown – general prep"]
- Study resources available: [e.g., "NALA study guide / Westlaw / LexisNexis / no paid resources"]

Create a structured study plan that includes:

1. EXAM OVERVIEW: Key subject areas tested (NALA CLA/CP content outline) and approximate weighting
2. WEEKLY STUDY SCHEDULE: Week-by-week breakdown from today to exam date
 - Assign specific subject areas to each week
 - Include review weeks and practice exam weeks
3. SUBJECT PRIORITY LIST: Rank subjects by weight + personal weakness
4. DAILY STUDY HABITS: Recommended 30-60 minute daily study structure
5. PRACTICE EXAM STRATEGY: When and how to use practice exams
6. FINAL 2 WEEKS: Intensive review approach
7. EXAM DAY TIPS: 3-5 practical tips for the day of the exam

Tone: Encouraging and practical. Many paralegals are studying while working full-time – make this realistic, not overwhelming.