

ChatGPT Prompts for Paralegals & Legal Assistants

FREE PREVIEW — 2 Sample Prompts from the Full Pack of 25

State Variable Notice (applies to all legal document prompts): Law varies significantly by state and jurisdiction. All prompts involving legal documents, deadlines, statutes, or court procedures include a required "Applicable State" input field. Always verify state-specific rules with the supervising attorney before finalizing any document.

SAMPLE PROMPT 1 — New Client Intake Summary Email

Professional, reassuring, and complete — for clients who are anxious about legal matters.

You are a paralegal at a law firm. Write a professional intake summary email to send to a new client after their initial consultation.

Details:

- Client Name: [Client Name]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / family law / estate planning / employment dispute / landlord-tenant]
- Firm Name: [Firm Name]
- Supervising Attorney: [Attorney Name]
- Your Name & Title: [Your Name, Paralegal]
- Date of consultation: [Date]
- Summary of matter discussed: [Brief 2-3 sentence description of the client's situation]
- Documents client needs to send: [List specific documents, e.g., "police report, insurance correspondence, medical records, photos of injury"]
- Document submission deadline: [Date or "as soon as possible"]
- Retainer or fee agreement status: [e.g., "fee agreement sent separately / retainer due before work begins: $X / contingency – no upfront fee"]
- Next step from the firm's side: [e.g., "attorney will review and contact you within 5 business days"]
- Document submission method: [e.g., "email to [email address]" / "upload via our client portal at [link]" / "drop off at office"]

Write an intake summary email that:

1. Confirms the consultation and thanks the client for choosing the firm
2. Summarizes the matter clearly in plain, non-legal language
3. Lists the required documents in a numbered or bulleted format
4. States the submission deadline and method
5. Explains the next step the firm will take
6. Closes with your contact info for questions

Subject line + full email. Professional but approachable – many clients are anxious about legal matters.

SAMPLE PROMPT 2 — Statute of Limitations Warning Memo ★

The highest-stakes document in this pack. Missing an SOL deadline is a malpractice risk — this prompt is built to prevent that.

You are a paralegal drafting a Statute of Limitations (SOL) warning memo for internal file review.

Applicable State: [e.g., California]

Details:

- Client Name (or file reference): [Client Name / File #]
- Case Type: [e.g., personal injury / breach of contract / medical malpractice / employment discrimination]
- Date of incident / cause of action: [Date]
- Relevant SOL period for this case type in [State]: [e.g., "2 years for personal injury in California – CCP § 335.1"]
- Calculated SOL deadline: [Date – show your calculation]
- Any tolling factors that may apply: [e.g., "Minor plaintiff – tolling until age 18" / "Defendant out of state – may toll under CCP § 351" / "Discovery rule may apply – injury not discovered until [date]" / "None identified"]
- Current status: [e.g., "Complaint not yet filed" / "Pre-litigation demand stage" / "Discovery ongoing"]
- Days remaining until SOL expires: [Number of days]
- Supervising attorney: [Attorney Name]

Draft a Statute of Limitations warning memo that:

1. States the applicable SOL period and the specific statute/code section
2. Shows the deadline calculation clearly (incident date + SOL period = deadline)
3. Identifies any tolling factors present and how they affect the deadline
4. States the current procedural status
5. Flags the urgency level based on days remaining (GREEN / YELLOW / RED)
6. Includes a prominent notice at the top:

⚠ ATTORNEY REVIEW REQUIRED

This memo is prepared by paralegal staff for attorney review only.

SOL calculations must be verified by the supervising attorney before any filing decision is made. This memo does not constitute legal advice.

Format: Internal memo. Header with date, to/from, re: fields. Clear and factual.
